Case # 19-CR-732 (KMW)

Dear Judge Kim M. Wood:

Upon Receiving this I hope that it finds you, your loved ones and co-workers in the best of health.

Please forgive me for imposing on you. I know you busy with other matters. I write this letter as a request or more of a plea. And it's my hope that you can aid me. When I was arrested for the aforementioned offense a few items were confiscated from my Residence. It was my wife's laptop that she uses for work. My cell phone that contains important contacts and some personal documentations. None of these items are criminal and hasn't involved in any crime.

I have asked my attorney Ms. Amy Gallicchio several times to ask the D.A. when would my property be returned. Till date I haven't heard anything from the D.A.

Now is there any legal documents I must fill out or sign to retrieve these items? And if there are could you please send them to me? Also could you please contact the D.A.

and ask them why my property hasn't been released?

My attorney recently sent you a letter requesting a hearing by video. If possible could you inform me on the status of that video conference?

Can you PLEASE help me?

Thank You!
Mr. Victor Delgado
